

COMPLAINT HANDLING PROCEDURE

Fairstone Bank of Canada and its subsidiaries (collectively, “Fairstone”) value your business and encourage you to take the following steps to quickly and effectively resolve your complaint.

Step 1: Customer Care Centre

Our team is here to help. You can reach the Customer Care Centre by telephone or mail. Resolving your complaint will be quicker and easier if you have the following information available when you call or you include them in your letter:

- Full name, phone number and mailing address that is associated with your account;
- The nature of your complaint and relevant details such as specific fees or transactions;
- The name of anyone that you have already talked to about your concerns; and
- Your contact information so we can reach you.

Step 2: Customer Care Centre Management

If you are not satisfied with the Customer Care Centre’s proposed resolution to your complaint, you can ask the Customer Care agents to refer your complaint to a manager. Your complaint will be automatically escalated to a supervisor or manager if it is not resolved within 14 days.

Step 3: Contact the Commissioner of Complaints

If you are not satisfied with the Customer Care Centre's resolution of your complaint you can escalate your complaint by writing to the Commissioner of Complaints ("Commissioner"). The Commissioner is not an independent dispute resolution service. The mandate of the Commissioner is to complete an objective and unbiased investigation of unresolved customer complaints. The Commissioner of Complaints can be reached:

By Mail:

Fairstone Bank of Canada
Attn: Commissioner of Complaints
33 Yonge Street, Suite 810
Toronto, ON M5E 1G4

Step 4: External Agencies

There are independent agencies that monitor Canada's financial institutions or assist consumers and financial institutions to solve consumer related issues. These agencies are independent of Fairstone Financial Inc. You can contact them if you are not satisfied with the resolution offered after completing Steps 1 to 3.

Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments ("OBSI")

OBSI is an independent organization whose purpose is to review your complaint if you do not accept the decision of the Commissioner of Complaints, or when 56 days have elapsed since you communicated your complaint to Fairstone. The OBSI is impartial, and its services are free to consumers.

Financial Consumer Agency of Canada ("FCAC")

The FCAC is a federal regulatory institution that educates financial services consumers, ensures that federally regulated financial institutions comply with federal consumer protection laws and regulations, and monitors financial institutions' compliance with their voluntary codes of conduct and public commitments. The FCAC determines the nature of the complaint and, when there is a breach of the law, it takes action to ensure compliance by the financial institution. The FCAC does not provide personal redress (i.e., compensation or monetary award). The focus of the FCAC is to make sure that institutions comply with the law.
